3.1 STATUS OF THE FARRANFERRIS LAP

In response to the following question submitted by Comhairleoir D. Wallace, a written reply was circulated as outlined below

To ask the City Manager to give a comprehensive report to Council on the current status of the Farranferris LAP outlining;

- (a) How many submissions were made on foot of the Public Notice?
- (b) What efforts, if any, have been made to progress this issue and prepare a report for Council?
- (c) When he intends to bring a report before Council for consideration?
- (d) What timeline he envisages for the adoption by Council of the plan?

(a) 32 submissions were received. They are very wide ranging and come from local community groups, local residents, schools, sports clubs, Bishop Buckley, Service Providers to disability groups, City Councillors, and social housing providers.

(b) The submissions have been summarised and work is ongoing on pulling out and addressing the main issues raised. Most but not all of the submissions related to the future use of the Farranferris College and the lands around it. The issues raised included very briefly:

- support for the general concept of reuse of Farranferris College for educational or community purposes such as third level institute, life-long learning, provision of training courses, and training and education for various groups with disabilities
- concern about traffic generation/congestion from any new developments, need for public transport
- identifying the need for sports and recreational facilities to be retained and expanded
- need to protect the unique character of the area: the historic buildings, the landscape, the ridges, the trees, flora and fauna
- view from a number of submissions that any residential development should be private as there is already a lot of social housing in the area. Other submissions referred to scope to provide for some voluntary housing, and sheltered housing in the area.
- Submissions from Bishop Buckley and his agents regarding their overall proposal for redevelopment of Farranferris as an education and training campus, with associated retail and crèche facilities and a residential scheme and a public park.

Further investigation is underway into these issues in particular to examine the traffic and access issues in the area, the recreational and amenity needs in the area and wider issues in the surrounding area.

(c) The intention is that the draft Local Area Plan will go to the Planning and Development SPC on 22nd September and then on to Council.

(d) Once Council agree to issue the draft plan for consultation, the statutory time frame set out in the Planning and Development Act 2000 and 2002 commences. It starts with a period of public consultation of 6 weeks, following this a Managers report is submitted to Council within 6 weeks, Council have 6 weeks to consider it. If Council decides to amend the draft plan the amendments go out for consultation for a further 4 weeks. Following this a second Managers report is prepared for Council who then have 6 weeks to make or amend the plan.

In response to the following question submitted by Comhairleoir M. Shields, a written reply was circulated as outlined below;

Could the inadequate domestic water pressure in Summerstown Estate, Glasheen Road be checked and rectified as soon as possible? At present house holders are complaining of poor water pressure which affects the proper use of showers, washing machines etc. What is the estimated time scale to have this work completed?

Preliminary investigations indicate that there isn't any apparent problem with the public supply network in the area concerned. More detailed pressure and flow tests will now be carried out together with spot checks at houses in the Summerstown Estate / Glasheen Road area. The results arising will facilitate identification of the source of the problems reported as well as potential solutions.

3.4 REGULATIONS IN RELATION TO THE STORAGE OF WHEELIE BINS

In response to the following question submitted by Comhairleoir S. Martin, a written reply was circulated as outlined below;

Could the Manager state if there are City Council Regulations in relation to the storage of wheelie bins and if so, what action is being taken by Council officials to ensure that wheelie bins are not a health and safety hazard to the public.

The regulation of the presentation of household and commercial waste presented by persons for collection and disposal is the subject of bye-laws entitled Cork Corporation (Presentation of Waste in Wheel-Bins) Bye-laws 2000.

Sections 7, 8 and 9 outline the times that wheelbins should be presented for collection and removed after their collection.

7. Every person so presenting predominantly household waste shall present not earlier than 9.00 p.m. on the evening immediately proceeding the day arranged for such collection and shall recover the wheel bin not later than 6.00 p.m. on the day of such collection;
8. Every person so presenting predominantly commercial waste shall present not earlier than 9.00 p.m. on the evening immediately proceeding the day arranged for such collection and shall recover the wheel bin not later than 6.00 p.m. on the day of such collection;
9. Notwithstanding bye-laws 7 and 8 herein, every person so presenting waste within the city centre shall not present earlier than 3.00 a.m. on the day arranged for such collection and shall recover the wheel bin not later than 1.30 p.m. on the day of collection:

Wheel bins should also be placed so as not to 'cause an unavoidable obstruction to or interference with amenity to users of the public road, public footpath or other place or other public place'.

Improperly presented or abandoned wheelbins on the public road or footpath can also be dealt with under the provisions of the Litter Pollution Acts 1997 to 2003, if it is deemed that they are creating litter in a public place.

Any complaints in relation to the above are investigated as soon as possible and appropriate action taken.

The list of snags has now been substantially completed. A number of residents were not contactable and this inter alia has led to minor delays in the completion of outstanding issues which at this stage are minor in nature. They will be completed forthwith.

3.8 LEASING OF LAND BY CORK CITY COUNCIL

In response to the following question submitted by Comhairleoir T. Brosnan, a written reply was circulated as outlined below;

Can the Manager please advise if Cork City Council is leasing land at trivial rents to parties who are in turn subletting some or all of the land to third parties at substantial rents. If such arrangements are in place have they been approved by Council or the Local Government Auditor?

In the discharge of its functions Cork City Council has entered into thousands of leasing and rental agreements for properties in its ownership. For social and community reasons, our policy for such arrangements allows for the rental / leasing of property at nominal rates or at rates less than market levels, e.g. G.A.A. clubs, social housing, sporting associations, community facilities, etc. The policy has allowed the provision of important social, cultural, recreational and community facilities which in turn has contributed meaningfully and substantially to the city's social and community infrastructure. Cork City Council has, on occasion, allowed sub-letting arrangements. Such arrangements are subject to consent being obtained.

All disposals of property are subject to the procedures and controls provided for in legislation (including the formal approval by Council as a reserved function). The Local Government Auditor does not have an approval function in relation to disposals, but regularly reviews the City Council's property transactions as part of the statutory audit process.

In June/July 2007 the Council contacted the customers who opted out of the service in previous years. Brochures were issued to 7,595 former customers, outlining details of a special offer for the period to 31st December 2007. This offer was available irrespective of past payment history. It provided for a standing charge of €100 for the remainder of the year with the purchase of tags as necessary. This offer was taken up by 249 former refuse collection account holders

The City Council had 2,195 fewer customers in 2007 compared to 2006. During 2007, the Council approved 11,842 waivers at a cost of €3,377,898. Details of the 2008 customer numbers and waiver approvals will not be available for a number of weeks.

In relation to funding for the completion of a relief road to the west of CIT, there are no funds available in the 2008 budget for this road.

Cork City Council in partnership with Cork County Council completed a study of the Traffic Situation in Bishopstown. This study recommended that a new By-Pass Route be constructed west of Bishopstown, linking the proposed Ballincollig By-Pass to the Cork Institute of Technology/ Model Farm Road.

A request jointly with Cork County Council for a grant of €5m in 2008 to commence work on both of these schemes was sought but was not approved by the Department.
